A New Day Dawns . . .

Hold high the torch!
In your strong hands
The future lies today,
Hold high the torch!
Its light may help
Others on the way.

The world needs young
And steady hands
To guide it right today,
And loyal hearts
And steadfast minds:
Be it yours
To lead the way!

Experience, Change, and Growth

Dedication

Mr. E.O. Young, Jr., Principal

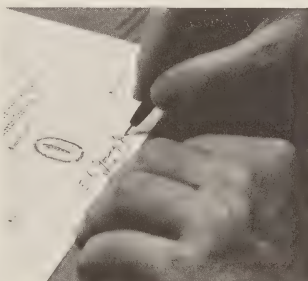

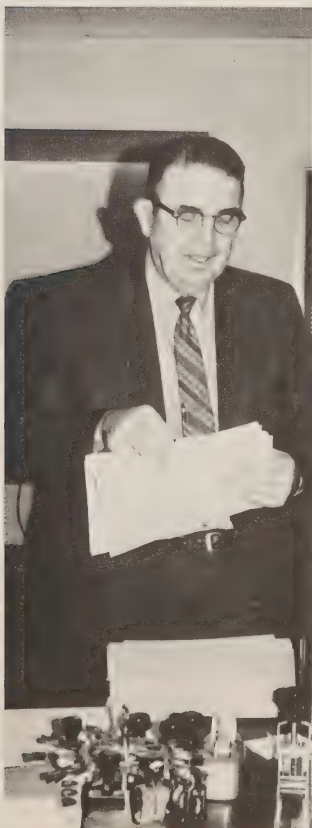

As the lighthouse uses its beacon to guide the way of floundering ships at sea, the students and faculty are led by the shining character of a most outstanding figure.

This man has truly been an inspirational guiding light for both students and faculty. His advice and friendship are sought and welcomed by the student body.

The subject of our dedicatory remarks is truly a strong link in the chain of education. His dedication, patience, and warm personality make him well-qualified for his position. He is respected and admired by fellow educators, locally and statewide.

In all his endeavors this man strives to do what is best for the school, despite difficult circumstances. He has truly been a key factor in unlocking the door to success for Vance County High School.

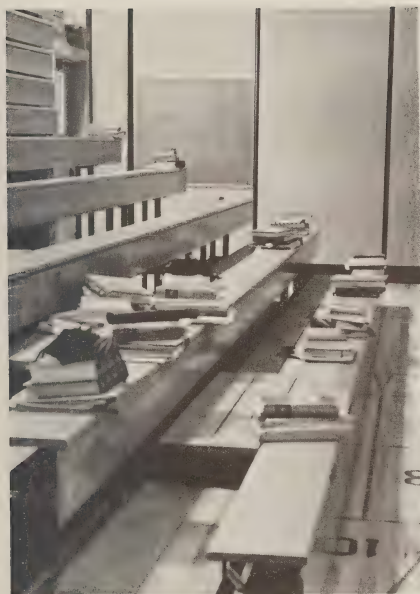

This man, who shines forth through every day at Vance County High, is one whose name is synonymous with quality in the educational field, E. O. YOUNG, JR.

Personalities

School Board

Mr. A. Woodrow Taylor
Superintendent

Mr. John L. Honeycutt, Jr.
Associate Superintendent

To light the path of education, the Vance County School Board works diligently in times of stress and ease. These lamplighters are:

Mr. John Rainey, Chairman; Mrs. Joyce Bobbitt; Mrs. Ruby Lassiter; Dr. Gilbert L. Sellers; Mr. Rex Woodlief.

Principal

Mr. Joseph W. Stepusin
Assistant Principal

Mrs. E. O. Young, Jr.
Secretary

Mrs. Margaret D. Waddell
U.N.C. — Chapel Hill, M.E.D.

Miss Pattie Lee Coghill
Elon College, A.B.

Mrs. Louise T. Leathers
Winthrop College, A.B.

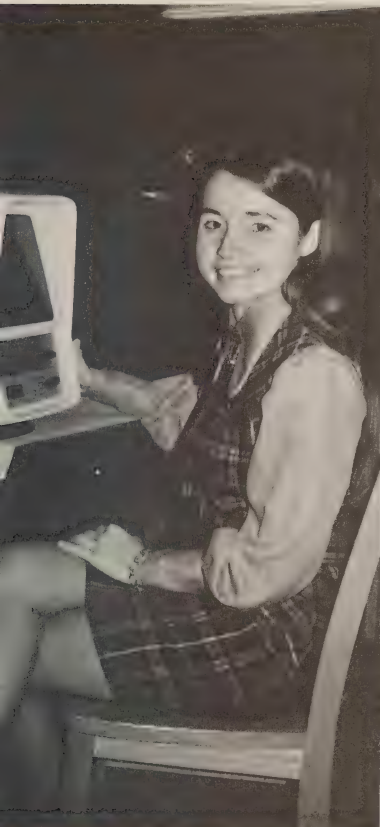

Warm, generous, and intensely vibrant. Applied to anyone these adjectives might be gushy. Applied to Mrs. Waddell they are only a bare representation of the facts. Mrs. Waddell is one of these rare people who can move mountains if she's determined to. As proof of her devotion to students, our guidance counselor now has a master's degree in guidance and English.

The wind rushing past in the halls is often Miss Coghill merrily rolling along wondering what she is rolling along for. This cheerful guidance counselor is also the spirit of the VCHS Student Council and a friend to everyone.

"Shhh"—that's the motto of Mrs. Leathers, our librarian. Friendly and helpful but strict when it comes to noisy students, Mrs. Leathers knows well the intricate mazes of the library.

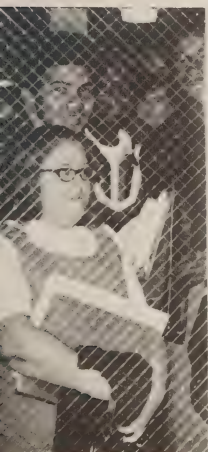

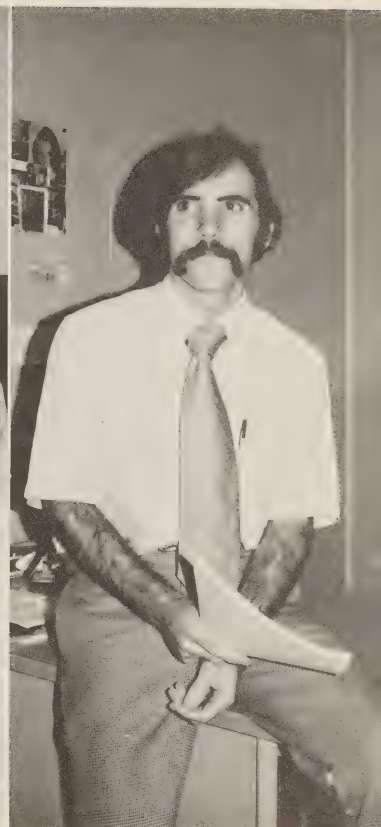

Miss Jane Jensen
Duke University, M.A.T.

Mrs. Rachel P. Mohorn
Arizona State University, B.A.

Mr. Howard Garcia
East Carolina University, A.B.

Reading English must be an exciting class this year. How could it be otherwise with such a young, innovative teacher as Miss Jensen? She loves classical and rock music, plays both the oboe and the piano, has spent several summers in Europe, and, of course, enjoys reading.

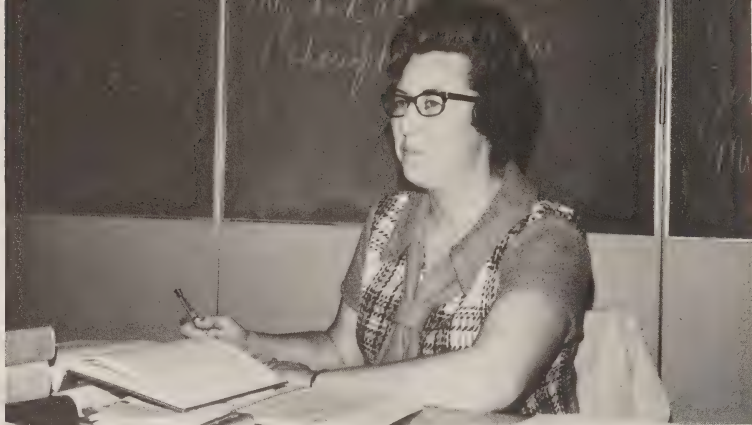

Mrs. Mohorn hails from Arkansas. A wonderful Reading English teacher, she is also a professional singer with a beautiful contralto voice and the wife of the president of Vance Technical Institute.

"Peace," "Smokey," paper airplanes, and a swash-buckling mustache. Sound familiar? Who could miss Mr. Garcia, our new Special Education teacher. Wonder if he's really the swinger he looks?

Mrs. Ann F. Bartholomew
East Carolina University, B.S.

Mrs. Linda P. Stanley
Appalachian State University, B.S.

Mrs. Melvina S. Bullock
Columbia University, M.A.

Known affectionately as "the slave-driver," Mrs. Stanley is famous for saying "What's that thing under your desk? Look it up." Her advanced English students often wonder what happens to their test papers, but they realize she's still a newlywed.

Talkative, pert, and busy "Mrs. B." is an exceptional English teacher who even interests the boys. Known for her chic attire and active spirit, Mrs. Bartholomew can give any cheerleader "a run for her money."

"Lady Macbeth," alias Mrs. Bullock, is often quoted as saying "You didn't study your lesson," and, "You got to be kidding." Mrs. Bullock must teach some intriguing English IV classes.

"You make a joke, no?" and "Shut your mouth," are two phrases often heard in Mrs. Ramey's English III classes. Sporting a new Afro hairdo, Mrs. Ramey makes it clear that she's "with it."

"Chief Flaming Hair" is really a sweet, nice guy according to students. Mr. Harris never lets his temper escape him even though he teaches English and Journalism and has the dubious honor of putting the school paper to bed.

"Okay, have you got it down pat?" is a favorite phrase of Miss Boyd, an English II teacher. This warm, friendly teacher is also the dedicated sponsor of the FTA.

U.N.C. — Chapel Hill, A.B.

Mrs. Betty J. Ramey
Shaw University, B.A.

Miss Eliza Boyd
Elon College, A.B.

Mrs. Beatrice H. Brame
Shaw University, A.B.

Mrs. Gwendolyn G. Hinson
Converse College, B.A.

Such redundant queries as "Do all of you understand this? Are you sure? Are you positively sure?" abound in Mrs. Brame's English II classes. A cooperative, friendly teacher, Mrs. Brame's major interests include her son, reading, and travel.

Our newly married, enthusiastic French teacher has a childhood in Florida, a year in Paris, France, and experience as an airline hostess to her credit. At present Mrs. Hinson enjoys teaching "gargling" and zooming around in her little blue Volkswagen.

"Mama Mia" how this bustling Spanish teacher rushes around. Originally from Cuba, Mrs. Iglesias is very excitable and often slips into her native tongue, Spanish, in which she spins out ten words a second.

Mrs. Rosa R. Iglesias
University of Havana, M.A.

Mr. G. Macon Reavis, Jr.
East Carolina University, B.S.

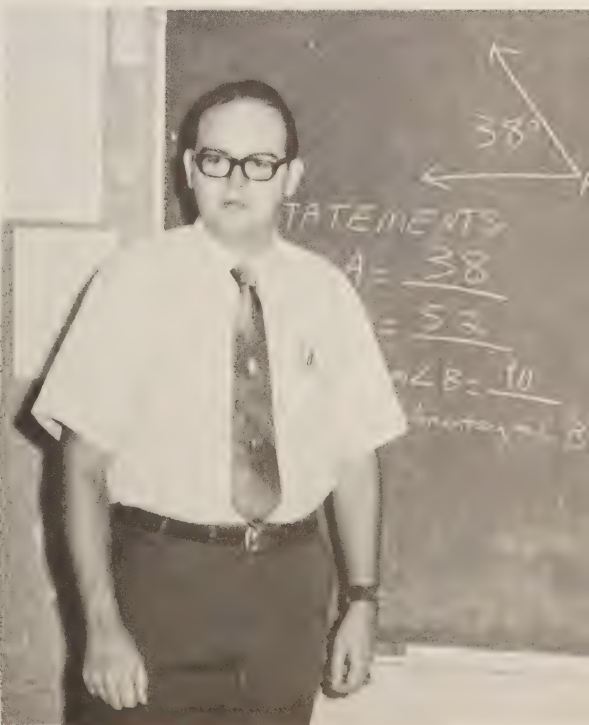

Mr. Charles W. Brown
University of Pennsylvania, M.S.

With chalk in hand, Mr. Reavis makes a try at anything in Algebra II or Advanced Math—even "those humpy things." No wonder he enjoys his pipe at the end of the day. Wonder what that mysterious "G." in front of his name stands for?

Geometry is his love of life, and rambling on, his second love. Mr. Hecht is a very conscientious teacher and will go to any length to explain a geometry problem. Each day his students come in wondering what new act of vandalism they will see perpetrated on his trailer.

Mr. Brown is known by the nickname "Doe Brown." This General Math II teacher is noted for his fast mode of walking. His wife is also involved in education and has been the librarian at Henderson Institute for many years.

Mr. James E. Hecht
U.N.C. — Raleigh, B.S.

Mr. William E. Jones
Livingston College, B.S.

Mr. Wm. Anthony Oakes
Western Carolina University, B.S.

Mr. James A. Overby
U.N.C. — Raleigh, B.S.

What sweet old guy is masquerading as General Math I and Business Arithmetic teacher? Mr. Jones is the correct answer. Not only is he kind-hearted, but he also loves to joke.

"Pudgy," "Tank," "Kato." Will the real Mr. Oakes please stand up? There are several unusual items to note about our football coach and physical education teacher. He has had karate lessons, and he loves to run around in his gym shorts.

A few strokes of the brush paint a multifarious picture of Mr. Overby. Would you believe "Superman?" A hunter with pipe in mouth? A physical education teacher and basketball coach?

Who wears size 13 AAA shoes, carries his trusty slide-rule, and brandishes an infamous smile? None other than the chairman of the science department, Mr. Pope. When he isn't snacking on cookies, he teaches physics, chemistry, and boy's biology.

Mr. Cobbs turns the tables on students by nicknaming them. As a biology teacher he has had some "interesting experiences" with animals in the past. He also likes to hunt even though he never catches anything.

"Be sure to go to church!" warns Mrs. Alston every Friday. This biology teacher has no fears because of the secret weapon in her purse. Her students know that one of her passions is assigning collection projects of everything from seeds to bugs to leaves.

Mr. Kenneth W. Pope
Elon College, A.B.

Mr. David E. Cobbs
Shaw University, B.S.

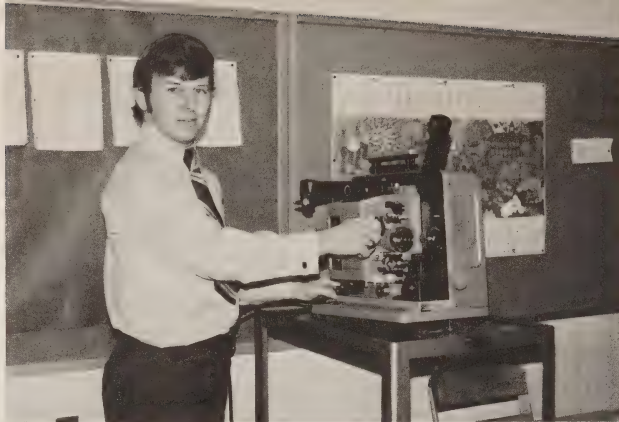

Mrs. Lillian V. Alston
N.C. Central University, M.S.

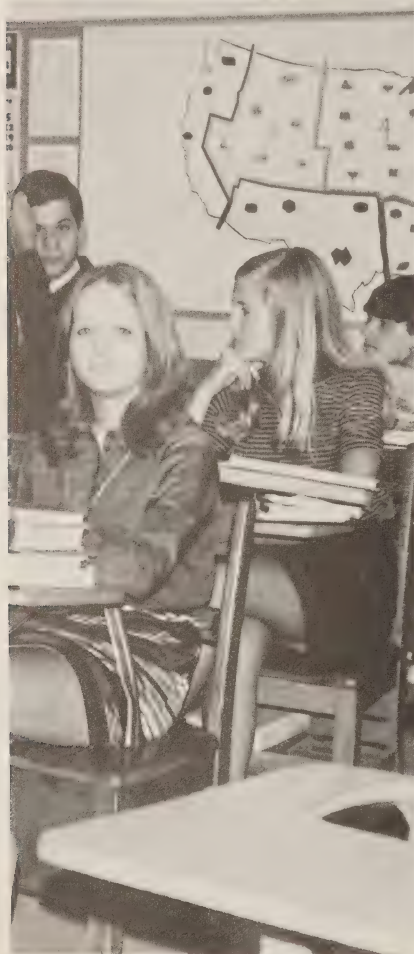

"Good, very good" — so says Mr. Banks to his World History students iff (and it's a very long if) they meet his standards. Mr. Banks is a brilliant history teacher, but one often wonders if it's his teaching methods or his adorable baby blue eyes that charm his classes.

Mrs. Longmire has a double identity as the Beta Club discovered last spring. Besides being an avid U.S. and World History teacher, she is a terror in a water gun fight and can be just as young at heart as anyone else.

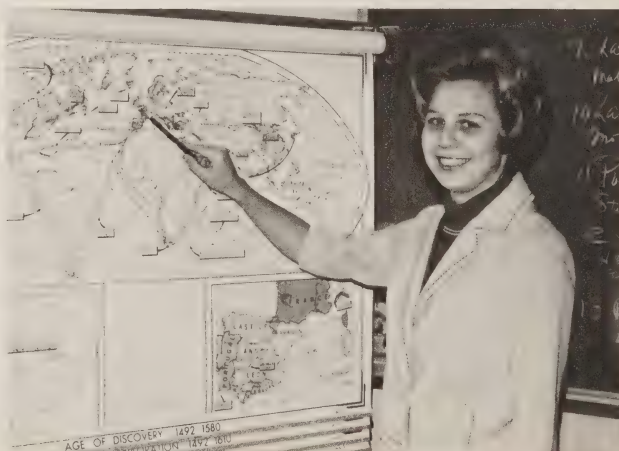

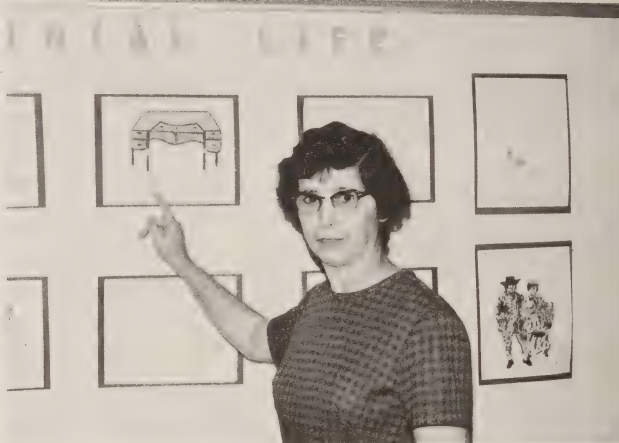

Mrs. Tate is always warmhearted, kind, and demure, unless, of course, you get her ire up as some of her past students have discovered. Since U.S. History is a required course, Mrs. Tate sometimes has quite a bit to tolerate.

Mr. Cecil S. Banks
East Carolina University, B.S.

Mrs. Emogene M. Longmire
Berea College, A.B.

Mrs. Ann W. Tate
Meredith College, A.B.

Mr. Nathaniel Faucette
A. & T. State University, B.S.

Mrs. Julia B. Gooch
U.N.C. — Greensboro, B.S.

New at VCHS this year, Mr. Faucette has a blue Opel Kadette and a beautiful wife who teaches at H.H.S. to his credit. This U.S. History and government teacher also has an unusual relationship with his students and can be heard "horsing" around with them.

"All right class, we will begin," intones Mrs. Gooch at the beginnings of basic business and bookkeeping classes. She teaches excellent classes in which everyone learns something, and spends her summers traveling and collecting works of art. "Mother Goose" is her nickname.

If you enjoy hearing about ships, freight yards, and furniture stores, you would like Mr. Carr's vocational business and book-keeping classes. Mr. Carr is also noted for his protective attitude about his office machines.

Mr. C. J. Carr
U.N.C. — Chapel Hill

Mrs. Evelyn Reese
Atlantic Christian College, B.S.

Mrs. Fay A. Clayton
Campbell College, B.S.

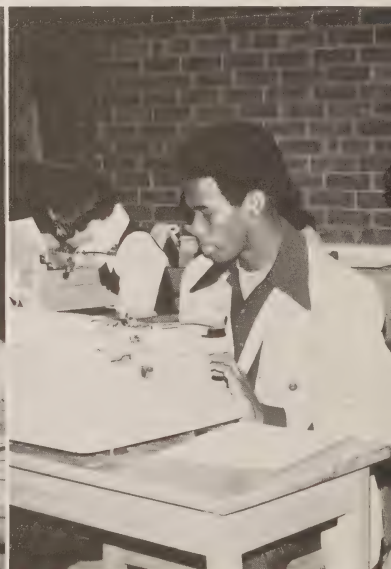

Mrs. G. S. Harris
S. C. State University, B.S.

Described as petite, impetuous, and very friendly, Mrs. Reese is a singular typing teacher. The unconventional student-teacher relationship that exists between Mrs. Reese and many students is one of warmth and familiarity.

Chewing gum, cross-word puzzles, and "yuch!" are all clues to a puzzling personality known as Mrs. Clayton. She is indeed a unique typing and shorthand teacher who can be friendly as well as fussy.

"May I have your attention class?" asks Mrs. Harris at the beginning of each class period. (Wonder if she gets it?) It must be pleasant to be in her typing classes just to see what she is wearing each day.

Mrs. Virginia A. Stabler
Winthrop College, B.A.

Miss Cleo Cudas
Flora Macdonald College, B.S.

Known as "Kitty Cat Cudas" because of her love of cats, Miss Cudas is also famous for her collection of colored hose which range in color from green to pink to yellow. In the line of duty, Miss Cudas teaches Home Economics.

"You know better than that," draws another Home Economics teacher, Miss Mewborn, as she teaches future homemakers how to cook or sew. Known for her many allergies, Miss Mewborn is a brave soul and still likes cats.

Music is "her bag." To prove it, Mrs. Hoyle teaches General Music and Chorus all day long. She sparks up her classes with a little humor, interesting notes about Barney, her dog, and, of course, her sparkling turquoise blue eyes.

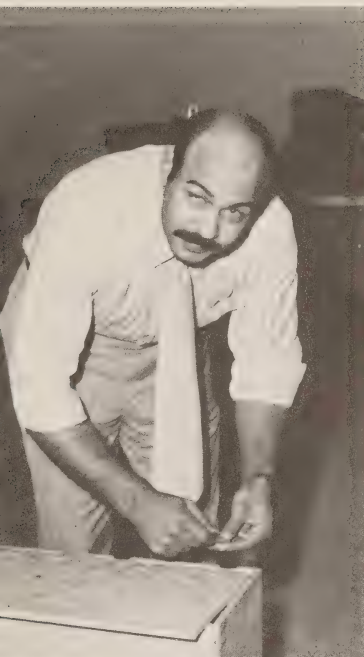

Miss Ailine Mewborn
East Carolina University, B.S.

Mrs. Rebecca O. Hoyle
East Carolina University, B.M.E.

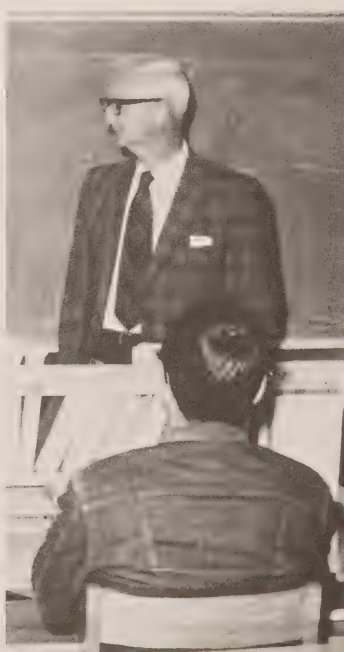

Mr. J. A. Redding
A. & T. State University, M.S.

Mr. Amon E. Liles
U.N.C. — Raleigh, B.S.

Mr. Joe T. Griffin
U.N.C. — Raleigh, M.S.

Mr. Redding presents an interesting paradox. Students note his amiable, helpful disposition and — his villainous laugh. A vocational agriculture teacher, Mr. Redding also moonlights as a farmer.

Who is it that does fascinating animal imitations and kicks students if they don't behave? If you don't take agriculture, you probably don't know that it is Mr. Liles, the silent one.

Mr. Griffin bears a slight resemblance to Colonel Sanders and presents a gentlemanly exterior. His horticulture and forestry students know better. They know that there's nothing he likes better than a good joke.

Mr. John A. Wilson
U.N.C. — Raleigh, B.S.

Mr. J. Ries Finch
U.N.C. — Raleigh

As a former National Youth Coordinator for Vance County, Mr. Wilson has had excellent background experience for his position as ICT director. His expertise and convivial personality make him an asset to our school.

"Yes sir, yes sir," says Mr. Finch, a fatherly teacher. He teaches auto mechanics and has the unusual custom of hanging his hat on a fire extinguisher each morning.

The lunchroom staff puts hard work and many hours into the meals at Vance County High. Although lunchroom meals can never match Mother's, they are nutritious and give us a lift in the middle of the day.

She also adds to the color and decoration of many bulletin boards and other endeavors with her artistic ability.

Arlene's determination and intelligence will certainly help her to reach her goal in life.

At first glance, DEBBIE CLARK seems to be shy, but deep down there is nothing shy about her.

Debbie is the head of the classes section of the annual and spends her spare time helping Miss Coghill and Mrs. Waddell.

Debbie is easy going and soft spoken. Only after you see her work, do you realize Debbie has big ideas. Debbie does much of the artistic work done in her classes. She also has an unusual talent for organization.

Among other traits Debbie is involved in community affairs. Each Sunday she can be found teaching little children right from wrong.

KIRK DONALD possesses a large portion of the humor at Vance County High. His sneaky smile makes one think he has just accomplished the impossible. Kirk is also noted for getting others into trouble while he manages to come out as the innocent one.

As a representative for Boys' State, business manager for the Torch, and reporter for the Beta Club, Kirk has shown remarkable leadership and intellectual abilities.

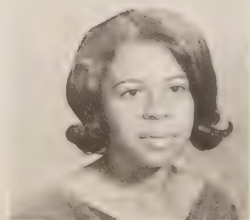

His willingness to serve his classmates has proven that he is eager to help better V.C.H.S. Kirk also centers a part of his school life around studying, and his plans for the future include college. Everyone is sure that only the best is in store for Kirk.

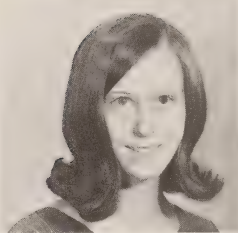

Cute, sweet, and always willing to help anybody with his problems makes SHIRLEY DAVIS truly outstanding. Vance County High would not be the same without her contributions throughout the day.

Shirley is an active participant of the Beta Club, Student Council, and Spanish Club. She has also been elected to serve on the newly organized Student Advisory Board. Outside of school, Shirley spends her spare time working at Woolard's Drug Co.

She is always ready to cooperate in any situation that arises. Her disposition has won for her many friends at V.C.H.S. The future is sure to be a success for such a well-rounded person.

Cute, perky, and intellectual mark only a few of the outstanding characteristics of DEBBIE EDWARDS.

Always on hand with a glowing smile, and always willing to be of assistance to any student or faculty member are just a couple of the reasons that she is such a well-known and well-liked person on campus.

Debbie's outstanding academic achievements are admired by everyone. She attended Governor's School in 1969, and she has served as marshal in previous years. She is also noted for being active in various clubs and organizations at V.C.H.S. One with so many talents has a successful future in store.

Throughout the school, JOHNNY GRISSOM is noted for his outstanding basketball contributions on the team. Johnny is one of the determined "Cougars," who doesn't give up until it's a victory.

Johnny's intellectual abilities are recognized by everyone. He is also noted for his membership in several clubs and organizations at V.C.H.S. In 1970, Johnny represented Vance County as a delegate to Boys' State. His winning personality makes him well-liked by both students and faculty members. Johnny was also Vance's nominee for the Moorehead Scholarship.

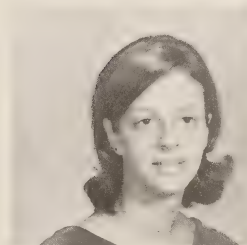

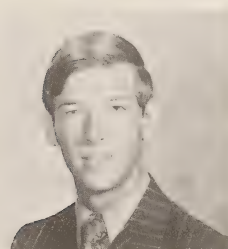

Johnny's plans for the future include college, and he has aimed his goal at success.

GEORGE HARRIS means friendliness to the students of V.C.H.S. He seems to have some strange power to be able to brighten up the day by just speaking.

George's ability to contribute to any club or activity has made him very popular in Cougar country. He is involved in many organizations. George is co-editor of the annual and President of the Beta Club. He also served as a 1970 representative to Boys' State.

George plans to attend East Carolina in the fall. With his personality and intelligence, he will surely reach his future goals.

Quiet, intellectual, and talented are only a few of GAIL FALKNER'S traits. She has many abilities which she uses to better V.C.H.S. She is a member of the Beta Club and French Club. Gail also plays the piano for the chorus.

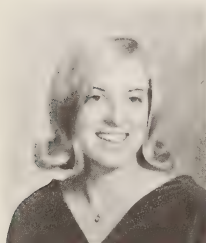

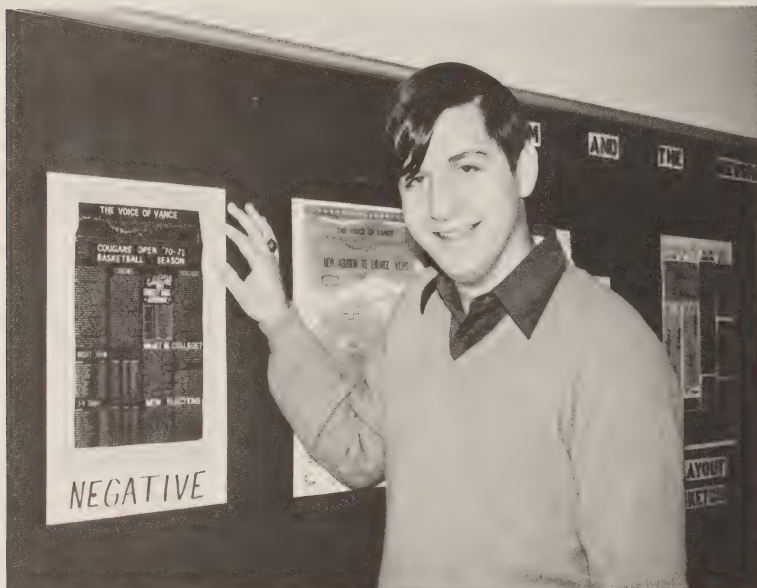

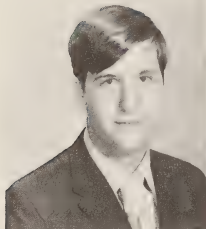

Although Gail seems quiet on the surface, when one gets to know her, he finds a warm and sincere personality. If anyone is in trouble or needs help, she is always around to lend a helping hand. With these characteristics she must be classed as a truly outstanding Senior.

PHILLIP LILES is a combination of many things. He is humorous, lively, and intellectual. There is never a dull moment around Phillip. Whenever the conversation becomes serious, Phillip is always ready with a line of humor.

Phillip is a member of the Newspaper Staff, Beta Club, French Club, and was a 1970 delegate to Boys' State. Phillip is original when it comes to new ideas. He is willing to cooperate and participate in any activity involving V.C.H.S.

Next year Phillip plans to attend N. C. State University. Phillip and success are on the same path.

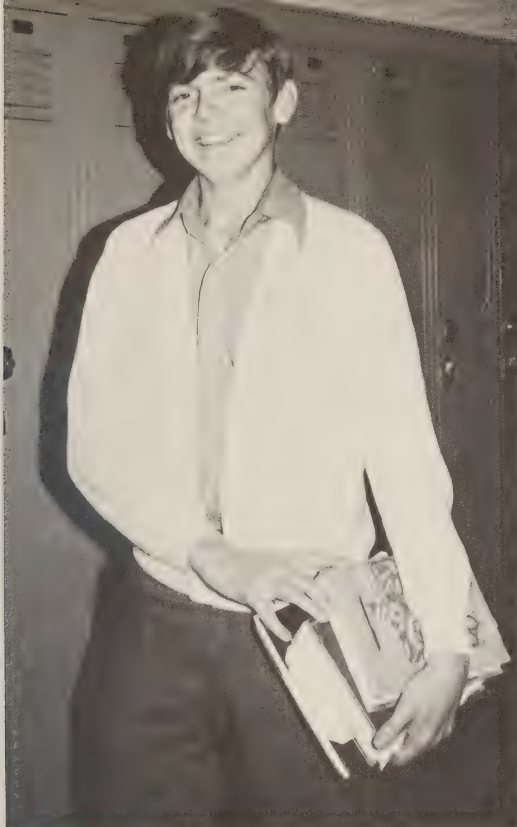

Smooth-talking, cute, and witty, PAULA FULLER is surely one of Vance County High's outstanding seniors. Working on the Newspaper and Torch Staffs, keeps Paula very busy. She is also an active member of the Beta Club. When Paula isn't busy with these activities, she is working diligently as a teacher's aide.

Paula's smiling face can be seen at any kind of sports activity cheering our team to victory.

Among her other activities, Paula was recently picked to serve on the Student Advisory Board.

In addition to having an out-going personality, Paula is studious. Her plans for the future include attending Methodist College at Fayetteville.

Cool, witty and more than ready with a smile, NOEL ROBERTSON is truly an asset to the halls of V.C.H.S. He may seem rather shy, but once you get to know him, his real personality bursts out.

Noel's time is occupied with the Newspaper, Spanish Club, and Beta Club. He is constantly working to make our school better. Without his role in the activities at Vance, it just wouldn't be the same school.

Noel's personality and his ability to make friends will surely help him to have a bright future in anything that he attempts.

Always ready with a witty remark, JOYCE GREENE can brighten anybody's day. Her personality is teeming with mischievousness. Besides being witty, Joyce is always willing to aid in anything that comes along. Nothing is too hard for her to tackle. Her determination in all of her work is amazing.

Joyce also shows great leadership ability. She is co-editor of the annual staff, president of the Spanish Club, a member of the Beta and Pep Clubs, a teacher's aide, and a member at large of the Student Council.

Joyce has plans to attend Campbell College in the fall.

Friendly, active, and cooperative, EDMOND ROYSTER is one of the fine students at V.C.H.S. to know and work with. In all tasks undertaken, Edmond works hard to achieve the best. Though studies consume much of his time, he is willing to help in student activities and join in fun whenever he can.

Edmond is outstanding not only in personality but in talent also. He proudly plays several musical instruments, though not all at the same time. Already able to play the B-flat and alto clarinet, drums, and saxophone, he is learning to play the piano.

Chosen as Student-of-the-Week is one of the honors received by Edmond. He has been active in the Student Council and several other clubs.

BROOKS GREENWAY, the symbol of school spirit, can be heard cheering the "Cougars" on to victory. She not only inspires the team but the students as well.

Her witty personality and cute ways mark her as being well-liked by all students. Brooks is actively engaged as Sports Editor for the Torch and has served as an officer for the Pep Club. She expresses remarkable leadership abilities through her work as a P. E. assistant and as the Beta's Club's treasurer.

Brooks also represented V.C.H.S. as a delegate to Girl's State in 1970. Brook's presence makes each day a "little bit brighter" for many of the students at V.C.H.S.

JOHNNY SPAIN appears to be a rather quiet student. He is very friendly after one becomes acquainted with him. Johnny is very mature, and, very much a young gentleman.

His scholastic achievements indicate his determination to be a success. He always does his best and is very reliable. His favorite subject is math, and he can usually be found in the physics lab at school. Plans for the future include going to State.

Johnny was a representative of V.C.H.S. at Boys' State in 1970. He has been active in the Beta Club, French Club, F.T.A., and Student Council.

ELOISE HARRIS may be considered as one of the "highlights of the day" for many students at V.C.H.S. She often breaks the monotony of school work and adds to the fun and mischief in the hall.

Eloise is consistently working as head of the feature section for the Torch. She also serves as Secretary of the Beta Club and as corresponding Secretary of the Spanish Club.

Eloise is always willing to assist in making V.C.H.S. a better school. Her friendship is valued by all who know her.

Her plans for the future are indefinite, but whatever her decision, she will carry out efficiently and expertly.

An outstanding student, able to combine work and fun, is GEORGE VENABLE. His hard-to-conceal, sneaky grin and witty remarks come when his friends are least expecting them. His smile seems to say "I know something that you don't." He is always willing and able to change a dull situation into something humorous.

George enjoys sports most, and plays some baseball and basketball himself. He enjoys working on cars, watching drag and stock car racing, and playing pool.

He has filled well the responsibilities of a good school bus driver for the past two years. Included in his future plans is I.B.M. training.

Whenever there is a picture to be taken, JEAN JACKSON is never far away. She can be seen at any time of the day, capturing on film the action of the students and faculty at V.C.H.S.

Jean is the head photographer for the Annual Staff and Newspaper Staff. She is a member of the Beta Club, Pep Club, and F.T.A. In 1970, Jean attended Girl's State and was chosen as one of two girls from N. C. to attend Girl's Nation. Jean's talent can easily be recognized by the many awards and honors she has received.

Jean plans to attend Meredith College in the fall.

A new face in the halls of Vance County High this year is SHIRLEY JEFFERSON. She has become well-known and liked by many new friends. Shirley is an energetic and fun-loving person. Her voice can always be heard in friendly chatter as one passes her in the halls. Much is added to her friends' day by her presence.

Shirley has varied interests. A career in business ranks number one, followed by sports — mainly baseball and basketball. She also enjoys dancing, dating, and eating. For two years she has been active in the F.B.L.A. and French Club.

Memories of ETHEL JOHNSON'S friendliness and willingness to lend a helping hand will long remain in the minds of her friends. She is a very considerate and inspiring person. Her scholastic record shows her desire to do well academically. Ethel is college bound and will surely be a success.

She enjoys cheering the Cougars to victory. Ethel radiates school spirit in the lively cheers and routines of the Cougarettes.

Ethel was a 1970 Girls' State delegate, and is serving as corresponding secretary of the Student Council. She has been an active member of the Beta, Latin, and Spanish Clubs, F.T.A., and Newspaper Staff.

Marshals

To be chosen as a marshal is a great honor for any student. Marshals are chosen by their scholastic achievements. The students with the highest averages are selected to represent each class. The chief and assistant-chief are chosen from the Junior class. Nine students were chosen from the Junior class; six, from the Sophomore class; and four, from the Freshman class.

Each marshal wears a badge. The badge is a plastic enclosed plate with the marshal's name and class. Ribbons of navy and white extend from the plate.

The marshal's duties are to distribute programs and song leaflets, and to seat people in an orderly manner. The chief and assistant-chief head the processional and recession at commencement exercises.

The following students served as marshals for the year 1970; Arlene Bender—chief, Loretta Franklin—assistant-chief, Judy Choplin, Debbie Edwards, Valerie Fleming, Johnny Grissom, Jean Jackson, Gail Roberson, Jerry Stovall, Matilda Howard, Nancy Mitchell, Kay Roberts, Elizabeth Short, Michael Smith, Cheryl Allen, Laura Bender, Sandra Cheatham, Bonnie Edwards, and Bonnie Stainback.

Girl's State

Representing V.C.H.S. at Girls' State was an honor for the girls chosen. The selection was made by the faculty. Girls from across the state met at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

During the week's stay, the girls held elections, debates, and set up their own city and state governments. The activities were planned for the girls to learn more about political science.

Girl's Nation

Jean Jackson proudly represented V.C.H.S. and North Carolina at Girls' Nation in July of 1970. Girls' Nation was held at the American University in Washington, D. C. It is a continuation of Girls' State on a national level. Two girls from each state were selected by the Girls' State representatives to go to Girls' Nation.

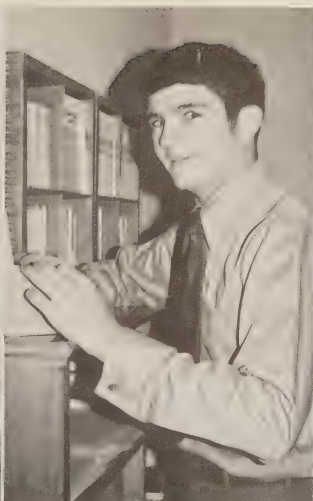

While there, the girls held senate sessions in which they had debates and passed and defeated legislation. They held elections for president and vice-president of political parties. A tour of Washington was given the girls. The tour began at the White House where they were greeted by Mrs. Agnew. At the Pentagon, Secretary of Defense Melvin Laird spoke to them.

Jean met with the Senators of N. C.—Ervin and Jordan, and our Representative Fountain. She was elected National Vice-Chairman of the Federalist party, Postmaster General, and Ambassador to Cameroon in Africa. She also met Winton Blount, Postmaster General of the U. S.

Boys' State

Allen Ball

Kirk Donald

Johnny Grissom

George Harris

Phillip Liles

Hal Paschall

Johnny Spain

Danny Stanton

An honor given to rising senior boys is that of being chosen to represent V.C.H.S. at Boys' State, an experience in political science sponsored by the American Legion.

In June, 1970, eight boys from our school went to Wake Forest University for a week. While there, they met boys from across the state and became involved in a game of politics as parties were set up, party leaders elected, government office personnel appointed, and conventions held. (Water balloon fights also took up some of their time.)

The week was a fun adventure as well as a learning session in the ways of government. Lecturers, who presented various sides of political parties, drugs, and law enforcement, were brought in. Thad Eure, as a speaker, was a highlight of the week.

The hardest job Classes has is identifying who belongs to what section.

The Camera Bug

As you page through this book, if you are transported to a land of memories, the credit belongs to the TORCH staff. Though much is said about the hard work and long hours, students do not really believe it until they become members of the staff. Then they pray for the day when the final draft is sent off and their work is done.

Everyone is involved in selling ads and raising money for the annual since the price charged students does not cover even half of the cost of production. The Business Manager and the Ads Department later draw up and type the Ads Section of the annual.

The other main sections—Classes, Features, Sports, Faculty and Organizations—are involved in the onerous task of writing copy and headlines, getting pictures made, and assembling copy and pictures. The difficulty lies in finding something to take a picture of when a club hasn't done anything or thinking up something nice to say about some odious character.

The photographers are, however, probably the most frantic of all. Place yourself in their position, rushing from room to room, waiting for people, trying to find time to make the hundreds of pictures required. And then the pictures come back, and you have to retake a third of them. Oh, for a pleasant night's sleep instead of working out the schedule for taking forty more pictures when you only have two days left in which to take them.

The editors, assistant editor, and the sponsors are responsible for the final assemblage of the TORCH. They get to jump on people's backs when something is wrong and rush around trying to meet the deadlines.

All in all, annual production is a momentous task. If you are working on the other printed publications and you find yourself two inches short of material, you can say "So what? No one will notice." When it comes to the TORCH, this excuse won't sound quite so sensible.

Well, who in the world is this?

Organizing TORCH layout.

Student Council Sponsors Christmas Assembly

Student Council Officers: Allen Ball, President; Janice Reavis, Vice-President; Marian Satterwhite, Recording Secretary; Joselyn White, Corresponding Secretary; Jimmy Cobb, Treasurer; Ethel Johnson, Reporter; Edmond Royster, R.O.F.I.S.

At Christmas the Student Council enthusiastically promoted the Christmas spirit by collecting large amounts of food and clothing for the Salvation Army. For the first time almost every door in the school was gaily decorated because of the Student Council sponsored competition. To climax the activities, the Student Council held a special Christmas assembly with a choral presentation by the chorus and performances by two rock groups.

Other projects included an informal reception for teachers and Student-of-the-week awards. Each homeroom is represented in the Student Council by an elected representative. These representatives, the officers, members-at-large, and representatives of former Henderson Institute students make up the large and important group responsible for these projects.

Mr. Reavis, Miss Coghill, and Mrs. Brame: the leaders that move the Student Council.

The members-at-large form an active part of the Student Council.

FBLA Organized at VCHS

The Future Business Leaders of America is a newly organized club here at Vance County High. Members are planning to sponsor a Career Day program and a radio program. Future plans also include distributing leaflets to students interested in business and visiting various business organizations within the county.

The sponsor of this group of commercial students with potential leadership in the business field is Mrs. G. Harris. She is the former sponsor of the FBLA at Henderson Institute. We are proud to have her with us.

FBLA Officers: Davida David, President; Sandra Wells, Vice-President; Faye Howard, Secretary; Becky Matthews, Associate Secretary; Marion Brodie, Treasurer; Wanda Peoples, Reporter.

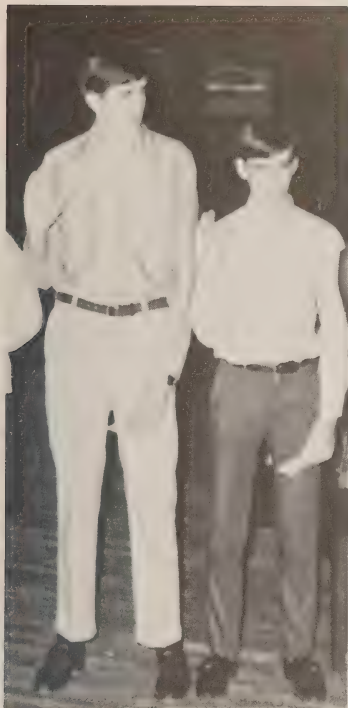

Mrs. G. Harris is Sponsor of the FBLA.

Beta Club Inducts New Members

Mrs. Longmire and Mr. Banks, Sponsors.

In a brief but significant ceremony, the Beta Club inducted its new members during a special Christmas assembly program. The number of new members was not as large as it has been some years with only eleven being inducted, bringing the entire membership to forty-one.

The project this year, begun by last year's Beta Club, has been the donation of the large enclosed bulletin board in the hallway opposite the office. Members have raised money for this project by selling candy and doughnuts. Part of the money was used to pay the fees of members attending the State Beta Club Convention in Asheville. This is the part of the activities that club members look forward to most eagerly.

The Beta Club is an honorary society requiring that members have a ninety-one average to be accepted into the club and that they maintain at least a ninety average. Character is also very important.

Beta Club Officers: George Harris, President; Debbie Edwards, Vice-President; Eloise Harris, Secretary; Brooks Greenway, Treasurer; Kirk Donald, Reporter.

Pep Club Cheers VCHS to Victory

"Win! Win! Win!" These are the words on which members of the Pep Club thrive. This active group of students helps to cheer our teams to victory by rooting every minute while giving a good impression of sportsmanship.

Mr. David Cobbs sponsors the Pep Club. He is the "middle-aged teenager" who should be made an "honorary-cheerleader." With a Pep Club such as this, V.C.H.S. athletes can surely not ask for more school spirit.

Pep Club Officers: Barbara Hayes and Russell Newman, Co-Presidents; Faye Howard and Gail Robertson, Co-Secretaries; Catherine Kelly and Diane Wright, Co-Treasurers.

Barbecue Supper Held by Varsity Club

The Varsity Club, composed of outstanding athletes and cheerleaders, raised money this year by holding a barbecue supper in the fall and operating a concession stand throughout the basketball season. The annual Student-Faculty basketball game is also sponsored by the Varsity Club.

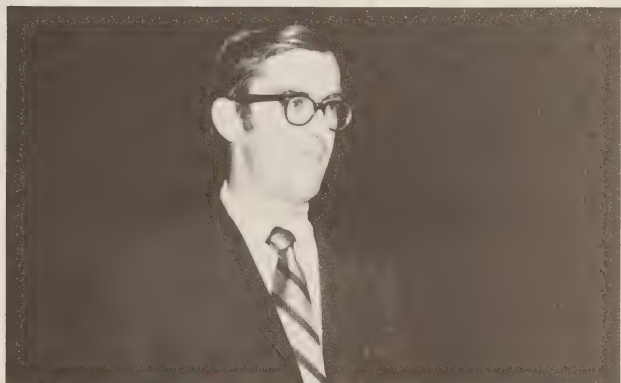

Outstanding players are recognized at the annual awards banquet where numerous awards are given. These awards include two Cougar Awards, two most Valuable Player Awards, Best Defensive Player Award, Best All-Around Award, Playmaker Award, and Most Improved Player Award.

Look who's parading again!

Varsity Club Officers: Carl Fisher, President; David Harlow, Vice-President; Brooks Greenway, Secretary; Susan Twisdale, Treasurer.

Mr. Overby sponsors the Varsity Club.

French Club Sends Supplies to Vietnam

The major project of the French Club this year was the collection of food, clothing, and toys to send to Vietnam for the Tet Holidays at the beginning of February. This holiday is comparable in importance to our Christmas holiday season. Groups in the U. S., such as the French Club attempt to offset the damage done by the strong Viet Cong offensive during this holiday with gifts of food, clothing, and toys.

Other French Club projects are planned to include a spring banquet and programs on the French civilization.

French Club Officers: Debbie Edwards, President; Johnny Spain, Vice-President; Arlene Bender, Secretary; Gail Falkner, Treasurer; Jerry Ayscue, Program Chairman.

Mrs. Hinson, French Club Sponsor, and two members with supplies sent to Vietnam.

Voice of Vance Becomes School Based Publication

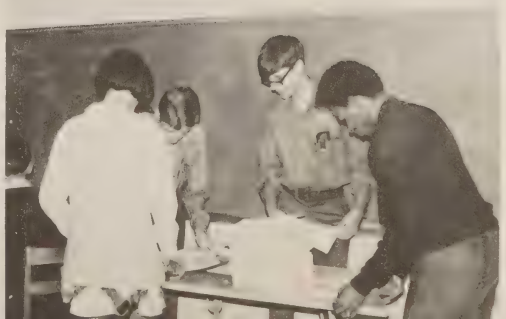

Mr. Harris is Sponsor for the Newspaper.

Working hard to keep the students of Vance County High abreast of school affairs is the task of the school newspaper, Voice of Vance. Articles cover every aspect of campus life, from sporting events to the latest gossip.

This year the newspaper became a school-based publication instead of a commercial publication. Several staff members learned how to operate the new offset printing machine recently acquired by the school.

As of 1970-71 the newspaper became a product of the journalism class under Mr. Harris's guidance. Journalism students learned basic newspaper writing, lay-out design, and headline construction.

Spanish Club Becomes “La Fraternidad”

The Spanish Club became known as La Fraternidad (the brotherhood) this year. Besides adopting a new name, members chose:

Colors: Blue and white

Motto: "Love and understanding be the law"

Flower: White rose

Emblem: Silver shield with castillian rose

Song: "Un Canto de Amistad" ("A Song of Friendship")

Pennant: Blue with emblem upon it

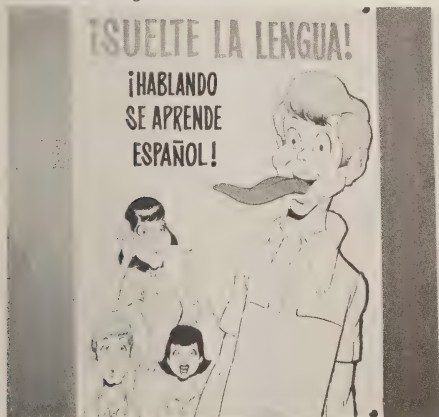

Under the leadership of Mrs. Rosa Iglesias, La Fraternidad plans to celebrate Foreign Language Week with a special assembly program and other activities. The members also plan to contact all Spanish speaking people in Vance County and invite them to the program.

Mrs. Iglesias, Sponsor of La Fraternidad, adds zest to meetings.

Spanish Club Officers: Joyce Greene, President; Dianne Spencer, Vice-President; Eloise Harris, Corresponding Secretary; Jean Jackson, Recording Secretary; Gary Ball, Treasurer; Mike Stinback, Reporter; Marie Smith, Program Chairman.

Hang loose!

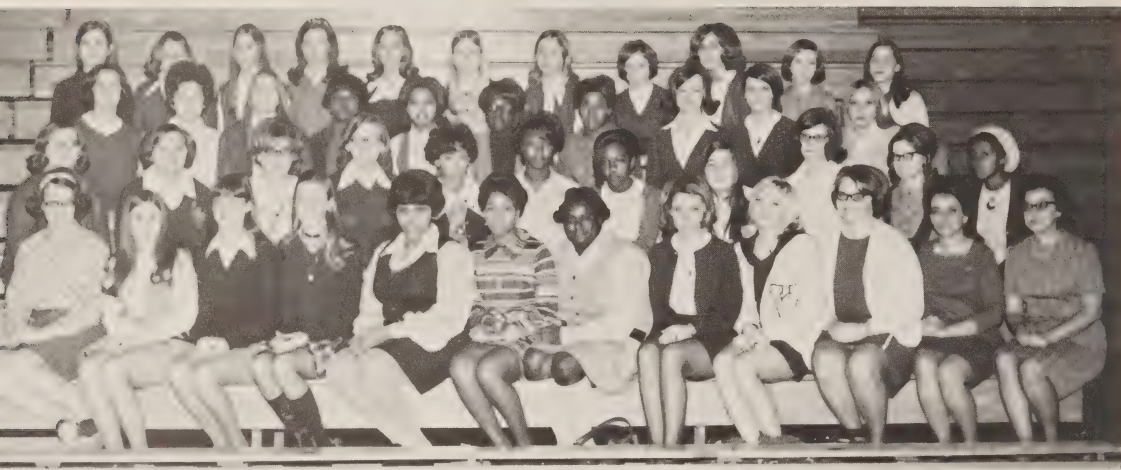

The spark of creativity is not quite extinguished.

FHA Holds Candy Sale

One of the major projects of the Future Homemakers of America this year was a candy sale. The money raised from this project was used for the purchase of appliances for the Home Economics Department. Improving the department was one of the main goals of the FHA. The winners in the candy sale were Joanne Breedlove, Julia Venable, and Kathy Ellis.

The FHA is sponsored by Miss Codas and Miss Mewborn. Programs are presented every month by different members. As an integral part of the homemaking program, the FHA provides opportunities for students to have additional experiences in planning and carrying out activities related to homemaking.

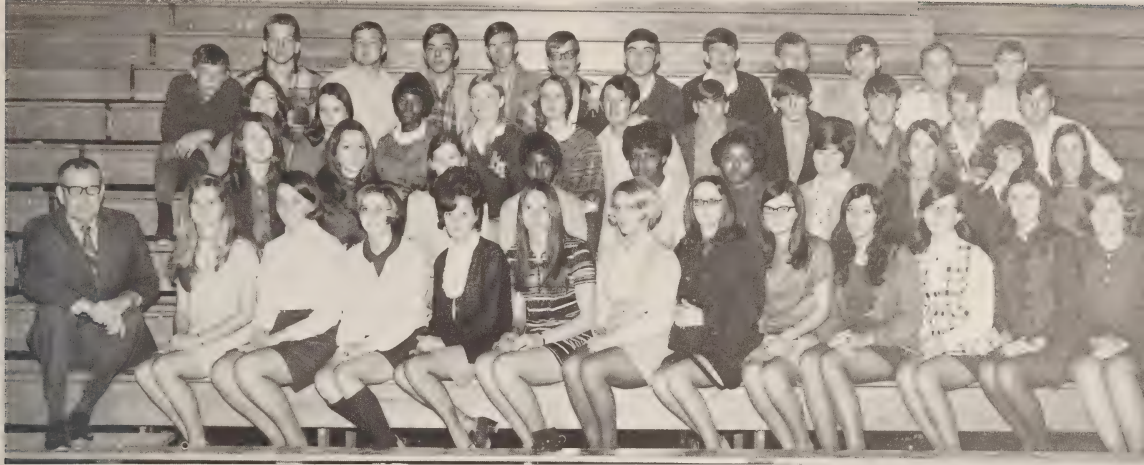

FHA Officers: Betty Jo Ayscue, President; Roxanna Ayscue, Vice-President; Shelia Satterwhite, Secretary; Joselyn White, Treasurer; Kay Currin, Reporter; Beverly Bailey, Parliamentarian; Gail Harris, Historian; Bonnie Twisdale and Annette Harris, Recreation Leaders.

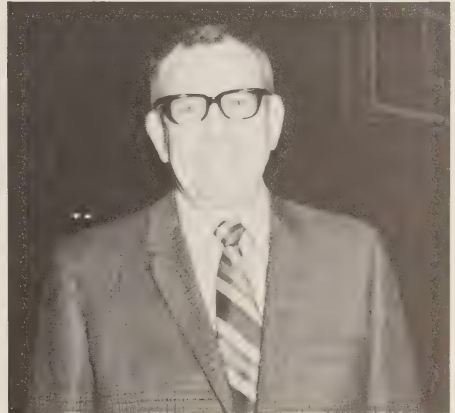

Demonstrations are given to the FHA members.

VICA Holds Employer-Employee Banquet

In its first year of operation, the VCHS chapter of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America has forty-nine members. The major project was a banquet held April 1 at the Holiday Inn for ICT students and their employers. The VICA hoped to promote good will between employers and employees by means of this banquet.

Mr. Wilson is Sponsor of VICA.

FFA Members Compete in Contests

The FFA Sponsor is Mr. Griffin.

FFA Officers: Danny Norwood, President; Sammy Franklin, Vice-President; Ronnie Moore, Secretary; Keith Smith, Treasurer; C. T. Robinson, Reporter; Donnie Robertson, Sentinel.

The main activity of members of the Future Farmers of America is to compete in a multitude of contests. They include Tool Identification, Creed, Ritual and Parliamentary Procedure, Public Speaking, Livestock Judging, and Soil Judging Contests.

The FFA scheduled five evening meetings this year. Speakers were the president of the State Association of FFA, the president of the Vance County Farm Bureau, the chairman of the Vance County ACP Program, and the personnel director of Lenoir Community College. The fifth meeting was a dinner program with awards presented to FFA members.

“Touch Humanity—Teach” is Theme of FTA

FTA Officers: Jean Jackson, President; Shirley Davis, Vice-President; Gail Falkner, Secretary; Johnny Spain, Treasurer.

The Future Teachers of America, a club made up of juniors and seniors who hope to pursue teaching as a career, sponsors teacher appreciation projects each year. In the fall the members gave each teacher an apple, candy, and a flower. The members feel that no other profession offers a greater opportunity for service to youth or a greater reward for those who choose to follow this path.

The FTA is affiliated with the state and national organizations and receives valuable materials and assistance from them. Club meetings usually consist of discussions of the teaching career and its vital role in our society.

The organization is sponsored by Miss Boyd.

Chorus Makes Christmas Assembly a Success

Galloping over the Ivory keys.

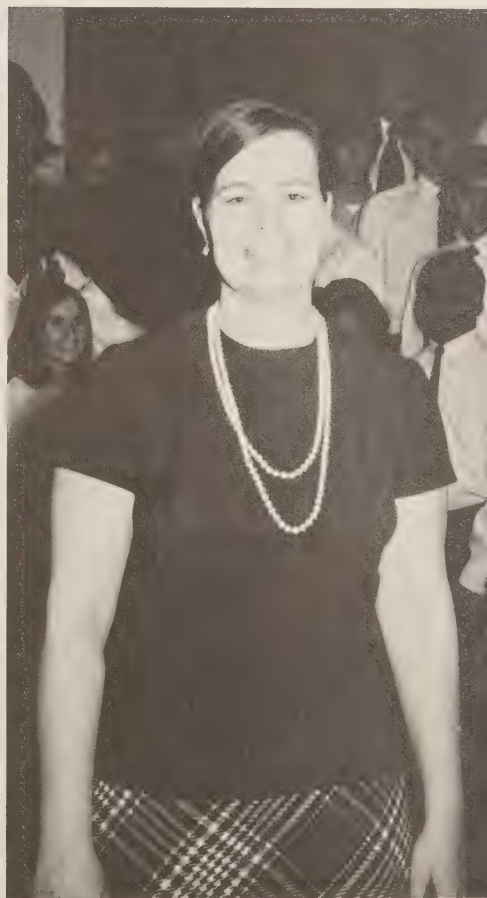

Chorus Officers: Carolyn Scott, President; Billy Stanton, Vice-President; Wayne Kinton, Secretary; Ralph Plummer, Treasurer.

The Chorus of V.C.H.S. is only in its second year and one-half of its sixty-six members are new, but it has made exceptional progress under the leadership of Mrs. Hoyle, its new director. The first choral presentation given was at the Christmas Assembly sponsored by the Student Council. The delightful program included "Windy," a solo by Mrs. Hoyle of "O Holy Night," and a medley of Christmas carols. The success of the Christmas program was due in large measure to the efforts of the Chorus.

Special presentations at graduation are also planned.

Library Club Serves Students

Running the VCHS library is a big operation-more than one librarian can handle. To help with the numerous jobs, some twenty-two volunteer student assistants work one period each day. Under the supervision of Mrs. Leathers, these members of the Library Club are responsible for preparing books for circulation, shelving them, charging them, caring for audio-visual equipment, filing in the card catalog, circulating magazines, and almost everything else that needs doing.

Library Club Officers: Joselyn White, President; Sandra Bullock, Vice-President; Virginia Floyd, Secretary; Joanne Breedlove, Treasurer.

Football

In the fall of 1970, the Cougars at Vance County High School sported a brand new look. That look included shoulder pads, blue and white jerseys, and an assortment of black and blue bruises.

This was the first year that any of the consolidated county schools had participated in a football program. Coached by Mr. Tony Oakes, a former Oxford Webb star, the squad was composed of students from the sophomore and junior classes only; therefore, we were listed as a Junior Varsity team.

The schedule for the season included 6 games. Home games were played at Veterans' Field at Henderson High School.

Playing against teams such as Durham Jordan, Garner, and Carey, everyone was a little apprehensive. Our boys had had no previous game experience, but they came through showing everyone they were from V.C.H.S. In the season opener against Jordan the final score was 30-8, and no one was ashamed. The highlight of the season came on September 24 in the game against Garner. The Cougars won that game 22-20. Although it was the only victory of the season, the team continued to battle in each game with the same fierce determination that is so characteristic of V.C.H.S.

Remember, tonight we play by the rules!

l. to r. Bottom row: Beth Ellis and Pat Twisdale. Second row: Joyce Bobbitt and Becky Dickerson. Third row: Marion Brodie and Ethel Johnson. Fourth row: Faye Howard and Thelma Stevenson: Mrs. Ann Bartholomew.

Under the direction of head cheerleader, Pat Twisdale, the Vance County High cheerleading squad led the student body in cheering the mighty Cougars on to many victories. This included a football victory also. This was the first year our cheerleaders had been responsible for cheering at football games.

To Vance County High, sports are very important and the cheerleaders do a good job of promoting school spirit. In order to be better cheerleaders, some of them attended cheerleader camp which was held last summer.

The squad consists of nine cheerleaders, one sophomore and eight seniors, sponsored by Mrs. Ann Bartholomew.

JV Basketball

The 1970-71 Vance County High J.V. team opened its third season this year on December 1. Our Cougar Cubs had been undefeated for the past two years and not until this year had we tasted defeat. The Cubs, coached by Jim Overby, had no starters returning from the 1969-70 season with exception of one, leaving the opening for new, up-coming first string ability. Although our season had not been as victorious as before, there still shone the willingness of the Cougars. Vance County students, faculty, and others have been really proud of these boys' determination. They have given us a glimpse of what our great future will hold.

Mr. Overby has not let his fans down. He still believes in those "good luck burgundy socks"; and this has been proven by his purchase of new pairs!!

Aw' come on, You shot last time!

Varsity Basketball

Cougars watch as "Fish" tries for two.

Again coached by Mr. Joseph Stepusin, the Varsity Cougar squad, still playing as an independent team, entered its third year. The Varsity is now classed as a 2-A team but belongs to no conference.

Not unlike the past two years, the 1970-71 season was an exciting year. The defeats suffered by the Cougars have given them strength and the victories have provided confidence.

One particular victory and one particular defeat should not go unmentioned. On December 8th the Cougars suffered the worst defeat in their entire history—they lost to Henderson High School. The Cougars did receive some consolation from the fact that they had beaten Henderson earlier on the Cougars' home court. Still, it was the first time the Bulldogs had triumphed over the mighty Cougars.

Even though they lost four starters, the Varsity team came back with amazing strength. They have strength not only on the floor but also on the bench. You can bet if a starter is not doing all he can, there is someone on the bench who is willing and ready to give all he can.

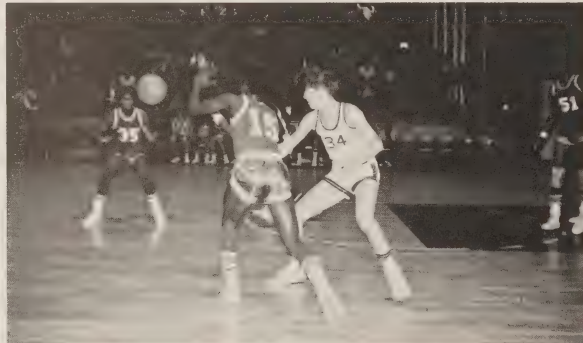

This Varsity squad may well be the last "real" V.C.H.S. team, but we know they will not go unseen and unheard.

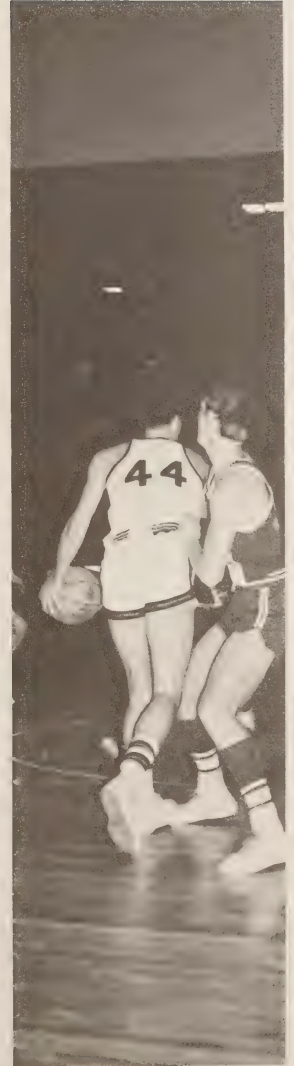

When you raise your arms, you lose your charm!!

Baseball

Playing as an independent team, the varsity baseball squad, coached by Mr. Jim Overby, boasted a 12-1 record for the 1969-70 season. The Cougars went as far as the Eastern quarter-finals only to be downed by Williamston.

Receiving the most valuable player award was southpaw Wayne Ellington. The Most Improved player award went to first baseman David Harlow. Lawrence Floyd received the Cougar Award.

Returning senior lettermen included Herbie Grisson, David Harlow, Rex Pulley, Gary Stainback, and Carl Fisher. Sophomore Al Grisson also returns as a letterman.
